About KBLU – Blue Canyon Nyack

The Real One

Blue Canyon Nyack Airport is located near Emigrant Gap in the beautiful Sierra Nevada Mountains in Northern California. It is located 30 miles west of scenic Lake Tahoe and 40 miles northeast of Sacramento. KBLU sits atop a canyon ridge, with runway 15 sitting just 300 feet beyond interstate 80, making for a scenic, but challenging approach. This unique approach makes Blue Canyon Nyack Airport a popular destination for touch-and-gos among private pilots sightseeing over the Sierra Nevada's. In addition, it's also not uncommon to see tents around the airport from pilots that have flown in to camp in the beautiful area.

KBLU – Blue Canyon Nyack by X-Codr Designs

I have personally visited the real airport many times when flying with family. We always loved doing touch and gos at the airport, right over top of the highway. In May of 2022 I visited this airport again, but via car, and got tons of pictures. I used these pictures to make the most detailed, accurate rendition of this airport possible. Everything here is 100% accurate, down to the paint marks on buildings, and I'm proud to present KBLU – Blue Canyon Nyack for all to enjoy!
